BLZE Scalp Setup - GO BLZE is exploding +44% on a solid Q1 earnings beat and raised guidance, with massive 4.9x relative volume confirming institutional interest. The key risk is the extended nature of the move - already gapped +35% and now trading well above recent ranges, making it vulnerable to profit-taking pullbacks. Look for entries on any dip toward $6.40-6.50 support with tight stops, or breakouts above $6.75 with volume confirmation. Watch the $7.00 psychological level as a potential resistance zone where momentum could stall.

Catalyst (12.7h ago · ChartMill · High Impact)

Backblaze (BLZE) beat Q1 2026 estimates with $38.7M revenue and $0.04 EPS, raised full-year guidance, and surged 43%+ after-hours on strong AI-driven B2 storage growth.

DGXX Scalp Setup Brief DGXX is running +54.7% on a fresh AI colocation agreement for a 40MW data center, with massive 9.73x relative volume indicating strong institutional interest in the AI infrastructure play. Key risk is the $6+ price level creating resistance for retail traders, while the large 59M float could dampen explosive moves despite the strong catalyst. Look for entries on any pullback to $5.80-$6.00 support with tight stops, targeting quick scalps to $6.30-$6.50 resistance zones. Watch for volume confirmation on any breakout above $6.20 - if it fails with declining volume, expect a fade back toward $5.50.
